

Meet our 2024-2025 Student Ambassadors

Hi, I am Tobe, one of the Inner Temple Student Ambassadors! I graduated with a Law degree from LSE in July 2024 and will be starting at the ICCA in January 2025. I was born in Nigeria and raised in Scotland, and I am passionate about increasing access to the Bar. In my free time, I love cooking, baking, and playing tennis. I look forward to connecting with others and contributing to the vibrant Inner Temple community.

Hi, I am Khurram! I have recently graduated with a Law degree and I am currently studying the Barrister Training Course at Nottingham Trent University. I feel privileged to be a student ambassador and a member of the Education & Training Committee. I hope to make a positive contribution and enhance the experience at the Inn. Outside of my studies I like to try new restaurants in different cities and play badminton. If you have any questions, thoughts or ideas, please feel free to reach out!

Education & Training Committee

I am currently pursuing the Bar Training Course at the University of West England. The decision to pursue my legal career in the UK was dictated on the opportunity to gain unique legal insights, accreditation, and invaluable practical experience. As an advocate for student voices, I am committed to representing the interests and views of my peers on matters relating to any of their concerns. By working collaboratively with other fellow ambassadors, we can identify and cross-cut issues that are affecting the student body, and ensure our perspectives are communicated and acted upon.

Qualifying Sessions Committee

Hello, I am Cynthia!
I am grateful to be selected as a Student Ambassador of 2024/25 for the Inner Temple. I am currently doing my Bar Professional Training Course in Northumbria University. I completed my undergraduate in Queen's University of Belfast. I am looking forward to contribute to the Inn through my role as a Student Ambassador. Feel free to reach out to me at anytime!

Liam Round

Having recently begun studying the BPC in Birmingham, I understand the difficulties students face outside of London and their involvement with the Inn. As the student ambassador for the Birmingham region, I will look to be the bridge between the Inn and its student members. Having seen first-hand the supportive nature of the bar, I look forward to paying back that support by supporting others throughout my time as a student ambassador.

Yashodaren Sawmynaden

I am Yashodaren Sawmynaden, a current BTC student at Cardiff University. After completing my law undergraduate at the University of Leicester, where I was an active committee member of my Law Society, I decided to take on the Bar and join Inner Temple. As a student member, I want to represent the Inn I can now call my "legal home" bring my ideas and be the voice of the students of Cardiff. I am honoured to represent both the students and the Inn, and bring this community closer. I will endeavour to achieve so much, in terms of inclusion and diversity, and help the Inn in its mission to shape tomorrow's legal professionals at the Bar.

Raymah Selvaraj

I am excited to promote this prestigious Inn's values and assist fellow aspiring barristers throughout their journey. I am thrilled to be part of this community and look forward to fostering meaningful connections and supporting students in every way I can. I'm eager to support fellow students, share insights, and represent the Inner Temple's long-standing traditions.

Caitlin Smithey
Student Engagement & Support Committee

Hi, I'm Caitlin and I'm studying the Bar Practice Course at the University of Law, Manchester. I am from Beverley, East Yorkshire. After completing my Undergraduate Law Degree at the University of Manchester, I worked for a year as a Legal Assistant at a Local Authority in the Children and Community Legal Team. I have a keen interest in family law, especially Public Children Law. When I am not reading my white books, I like to keep myself busy by going out and about in Manchester or going back to Yorkshire to visit my two golden retrievers (and family).

Ruby Wallis
Student Engagement & Support Committee

I am a BPC student studying at the University of Law, Liverpool. I wanted to become a Student Ambassador to help facilitate and encourage regional students accessing the incredible opportunities within Inner Temple. The Inns of Court can be an incredible support system for students who are just starting their journey at the Bar. I want to use my voice as a Student Ambassador to make sure every student feels included and able to take advantage of all resources available to them!

Megan Walsh Killen
Education & Training Committee

Hi, I'm Megan! I'm from Manchester and live in London. I studied Classical Studies with English at King's College London and completed my GDL after graduating. I am a part time BTC student at BPP Holborn and work full time alongside studying. Outside of this, I manage the Under 12's at Islington Borough Ladies FC and play football myself - I'm a lifelong Manchester United fan! I'm friendly, approachable and welcome the views of my fellow students, so please contact me with any thoughts you may have. I look forward to contributing to the community at the Inner Temple.
